

Adventure Awaits: 2-Day Ha Long Bay Cruise and Kayak

Description

See the best of Halong Bay on this 2-day guided cruise. Taste the local seafood and try your hand at cooking traditional dishes. Swim, kayak, fish, sunbathe, and more on this activity-filled adventure.

Day 1: Hanoi/ TuanChau → Halong Bay

If you chose the option with a transfer, get picked up at your hotel and drive to Tuan Chau Marina. Otherwise, embark on the cruise, and enjoy a warm welcome drink. Check-in at your cabin. Enjoy a tasty lunch, and a sample of fresh regional seafood while cruising on the clear waters, passing Incense Burner Island, Fighting Cock islet, and Stone Dog.

In the late afternoon kayak inside Luon Cave and visit Ti Top Island, or just relax on the boat's sun deck and take in the views of the bay. Join the sunset party and a cooking class, where you can learn how to make fried spring rolls with fish sauce.

In the evening, indulge in the set-menu dinner of Vietnamese and Asian foods. Afterward, join a squid fishing outing with the crew. Cook the fresh squid, play cards or sing your heart out at karaoke.

Day 2: Halong bay → TuanChau/Hanoi

Set your alarm early and enjoy the sunrise on the sundeck. Take in the morning view of Halong Bay with a cup of tea or coffee over breakfast.

Then get transferred to the smaller boat at Surprise cave to explore the most beautiful limestone cave in Halong Bay and its different points of interest and most scenic locations. Cruise to some of Halong Bay's most untouched areas like Finger Islet and Fighting cock islets.

Then, enjoy a traditional Vietnamese lunch while cruising back to the pier end your excursion in Halong Bay. For the option with a transfer, get picked up at Tuan Chau Marina by bus and drive back to your hotel.
