Our journey begins in Port Blair, where you will encounter numerous historically significant documents and structures that serve as reminders of the local struggles for independence. From there, we will embark on a boat ride to Havelock Island, a hidden gem known for its breathtaking views and serene atmosphere. Located approximately 54 kilometers away from Port Blair, Havelock Island attracts many divers due to its calm, crystal-clear waters with excellent visibility of up to 40 meters underwater.

Even beginners can relish in this experience, thanks to the gentle currents and diverse marine life. Families enjoy day trips to this picturesque location, while couples create cherished memories along its shores. In addition to Radhanagar, we will also explore Elephant Island Beach, situated a short distance from Havelock Island. Although smaller in size, this beach is frequented by amateur divers and offers snorkeling opportunities for beginners. Seize the chance to not only appreciate the surface beauty but also explore the captivating underwater world that makes the Andaman Islands so irresistible.
