Day 2: Half Day City Tour

On the second day of your trip, embark on a captivating half-day city tour of Buenos Aires. This excursion offers a wonderful opportunity to explore one of the most stunning cities in Argentina. The tour begins in the northern part of the city, where you will visit the neighborhoods of Retiro, Palermo, and Recoleta. As you stroll through these areas, you will be enchanted by the lush green spaces and magnificent French-style mansions that reflect the grandeur of Buenos Aires's high society from the early 20th century. Along the way, you can also visit museums, admire monuments, and marvel at natural canyons. Moving towards the city center, you will pass through the iconic 9 de Julio Avenue, where you can catch a glimpse of the renowned Colon Theater and the majestic Obelisk. Finally, you will arrive at Plaza de Mayo, the historic site where the city was founded in 1580. Here, you can explore landmarks such as the Government House, the Cabildo, and the Metropolitan Cathedral before taking a break.

As you continue your journey towards the southern part of the city, make sure to explore the suburbs, where you can immerse yourself in the essence of tango in your very own hometown: San Telmo. Additionally, you will have the chance to visit the renowned neighborhood of La Boca, which is home to one of the most famous stadiums in the world, La Bombonera, the iconic venue of Club Atlético Boca

Juniors. In La Boca, you will also have the opportunity to marvel at the vibrant conventillos, which were the residences of Italian immigrants in the late 19th century, as well as the picturesque street known as Caminito. This will serve as the final stop of the tour, allowing you some free time to explore at your leisure.

To conclude the tour, you will have the opportunity to visit the modern neighborhood of Puerto Madero, which has undergone a complete restoration since 1990. This neighborhood boasts one of the most extensive and diverse culinary scenes in Buenos Aires.

Don't miss out on the chance to discover the incredible city of Buenos Aires on this unforgettable tour. And remember, the tour will not be canceled due to rain!
