Day 11: Ottawa: Sightseeing River Cruise

After enjoying your breakfast, step outside of the hotel to embark on a cruise ride that we have arranged for you. Immerse yourself in the natural beauty of the region that once captivated the imagination of Samuel de Champlain, the first European explorer. Hop aboard the “Paula D” for a 1.5-hour sightseeing cruise along the Ottawa River. This unforgettable experience not only provides a fascinating glimpse into the region’s rich history but also allows you ample time to make the most of your stay.

For your convenience, there are two departure docks available, one in Gatineau and the other in Ottawa. Once you are on board, sit back, relax, and enjoy the scenic views as you cruise down the river. Your knowledgeable guide will entertain you with engaging and informative commentary in both English and French, shedding light on the river’s past as a vital transportation route for resources.

During the cruise, you will have the opportunity to admire iconic landmarks such as the Parliament Buildings, the Rideau Canal Locks, and the cities of Ottawa and Gatineau from a unique perspective. Additionally, you will discover hidden gems that can only be seen from the water or from Gatineau.

While you soak in the sights, treat yourself to a refreshing cold beverage (at your own expense) on the spacious open-air upper deck. Alternatively, if you prefer to escape the elements, head to the enclosed lower deck where you can take advantage of the on-board canteen and bar. After the cruise, you can return to the hotel and enjoy the rest of your overnight stay.

Day 13: Montreal: Half Day City Tour By Bus

Your designated driver will arrive at the hotel lobby after you have finished your breakfast. Today, you will have the opportunity to explore Montreal by bus and discover over 200 points of interest in this vibrant Canadian city. Throughout the tour, your bilingual guide will provide you with detailed information and historical background about each place you visit.

Begin your journey by strolling through the charming Old Montreal, where you can enjoy a panoramic view of the Old Port and admire the beauty of Place Jacques Cartier, located in the heart of this historic area. Old Montreal, situated between the St. Lawrence River and downtown, serves as the city’s center and offers a captivating glimpse into Montreal’s rich past.

During the tour, you will also have the chance to see prestigious institutions such as McGill University and Université de Montreal. Make a stop at Montreal’s City Hall before heading to the lively Montreal Harbor, an ocean port located 1,000 miles (1,600 km) away from the sea.

Take in the breathtaking views of the city from Mont Royal Park, where you can also visit the impressive St. Joseph’s Oratory, located at the park’s summit.

The bus will then take you to Chinatown, the Place Des Arts performing arts center, and the Place Ville Marie underground luxury shopping center. You will also have the opportunity to see the tallest inclined building in the world at Olympic Park and admire the new home of the Montreal Canadiens ice hockey team at the Bell Centre.

Explore Montreal's French Quarter, as well as its residential and financial districts, and immerse yourself in the unique charm of this fascinating French Canadian city. After a day full of exploration, you will return to the hotel for an overnight stay.

(Meals: Breakfast)

Day 14: Montreal: Quebec City and Montmorency Falls Tour

After enjoying a delicious breakfast at the hotel, take a leisurely walk up to downtown Montreal to meet your coach driver. Embark on a guided day trip to Quebec City, where you can explore the city's rich history and iconic landmarks. Sit back and relax in the comfort of a premium bus as you are picked up from your downtown Montreal hotel.

Upon arrival in Quebec City, your itinerary will include visits to popular sites such as Place Royale, Old Quebec, Petit Champlain, Notre Dame Basilica, and the Quebec Citadel. Take a scenic drive along Grande-Allee, make a stop at the famous Chateau Frontenac, and marvel at Quebec's oldest skyscraper.

You will also have some free time to wander through the city's charming streets and discover the Escalier Casse-Cou, Quebec City's oldest public stairs. Don't miss the opportunity to ride the funicular, which connects Upper and Lower Quebec, offering breathtaking views of the river and its surroundings.

During the trip, you will make a stop at the Plains of Abraham, where the historic battle between the French and English armies took place in 1759. It's a fascinating spot to learn about the city's past.

Before heading back to Montreal, you will visit Montmorency Falls, where you can admire the impressive 274-foot (83-meter) high waterfall and enjoy the stunning views. Finally, hop back on the bus for a comfortable return journey to your Montreal hotel. You will have an overnight stay at the hotel, and breakfast will be provided as part of the package.
