Kathmandu, the capital of Nepal, is nestled within a valley embraced by the majestic Himalayan mountains. At the core of the ancient city's intricate alleyways lies Durbar Square, which comes alive with energy during Indra Jatra, a vibrant religious festival celebrated with captivating masked dances. The city's rich historical heritage suffered significant damage during the earthquake of 2015, leading to the restoration of key landmarks such as the Hanuman Dhoka palace and the wooden Hindu temple, Kasthamandap.

The Tal Barahi Temple, a striking two-story pagoda, is beautifully situated on an island within the lake. Day 02: Exploring Kathmandu

Begin your morning with a visit to the revered Pashupatinath Temple, one of the most sacred sites among Hindu temples. Nestled along the banks of the Bagmati River, this stunning two-tiered golden temple, adorned with four intricately designed silver doorways, exemplifies the unique artistry of Nepalese temple architecture. As one of the largest Hindu temple complexes in South Asia, it houses countless Shiva lingams and various shrines dedicated to Hindu deities.

Next, we will journey to Bouddhanath, the most significant Buddhist site in Nepal. This ancient and monumental stupa, towering at approximately 36 meters, is one of the largest of its kind in the country. It is set upon a grand three-tiered mandala platform, encircled by vibrant family homes, creating a picturesque atmosphere.

In the afternoon, we will explore the historic Kathmandu Durbar Square and Swayambhunath. The Kathmandu Durbar Square, known locally as Hanuman Dhoka Palace Square, lies at the city's core and was once the royal seat of Nepalese royalty. This expansive palace complex features a remarkable array of temples dedicated to various Hindu gods and goddesses, with most structures dating back to the 15th to 18th centuries. Our adventure continues at Swayambhunath, perched on a charming hillock. This magnificent stupa, believed to have been constructed around 250 B.C., offers breathtaking views of the Kathmandu Valley and the stunning panorama of the northeastern Himalayan range. Enjoy a restful overnight stay at your hotel.

Day 03: Kathmandu to Pokhara (210 km & 6 - 7 hours drive)

Today, we embark on a scenic journey to Pokhara. This captivating city, situated in a serene valley at an elevation of 827 meters, serves as the gateway to some of Nepal's most sought-after trekking and rafting adventures. The tranquil waters of Phewa Lake, coupled with the breathtaking backdrop of the iconic Machchhapuchhre peak (6,977 meters), create an atmosphere of tranquility and enchantment. The lush valley surrounding Pokhara is adorned with dense forests, rushing rivers, and crystal-clear lakes, offering a stunning panorama of the majestic Himalayas. Here, one can marvel at the awe-inspiring views of Dhaulagiri, Manasalu, Machchhapuchhre, and the five peaks of Annapurna, among others.

Optional: Visit the revered Manokamana Temple along the way.

In the afternoon, enjoy a leisurely walking tour around Fewa Lake and explore the Tal Barahi Temple, situated on an island. Overnight accommodations will be at a luxurious hotel.

Day 04: Exploring Pokhara

Our day will commence with a visit to the Bindebasini Temple, a revered site dedicated to Devi Bhagwati, nestled within the historic park of Pokhara Bazar. Adjacent to the temple lies the Seti River, a stunning natural wonder that flows through the heart of the city. The river's powerful currents and the dramatic gorge it has carved create a breathtaking spectacle. Following this, we will explore Devi's Fall and the Gupteshwor Cave. Devi's Fall is a striking, seemingly bottomless chasm where the waters of Fewa Lake plunge with a thunderous roar.

Directly opposite Devi's Fall is Gupteshwor Cave, which stretches nearly 3 kilometers in length. This cave features expansive chambers and narrow passages that require crawling at times. It holds significant importance for Hindus, as it houses a phallic symbol of Lord Shiva, preserved in its original state since its discovery.

The afternoon is yours to enjoy leisurely boating or engage in personal pursuits. We will spend the night at our hotel.
