Day 2: Tour of Istanbul's Historic Heart

Savor a delightful breakfast before embarking on an enriching day of guided discovery in the enchanting Old City of Istanbul. Our journey begins at the magnificent Hagia Sophia Mosque, an architectural marvel of the Byzantine era and a testament to the city's illustrious past.

Next, we will explore the ancient Byzantine Hippodrome, once a bustling hub for chariot races and social events. Following this, we will be captivated by the exquisite blue Iznik tiles adorning the famous Blue Mosque, a breathtaking representation of Islamic artistry.

Our adventure continues as we enter the luxurious chambers of the Topkapi Palace, the former opulent abode of the Ottoman Sultans, where we will uncover the intriguing tales of its history.

To conclude our day, we will immerse ourselves in the lively ambiance of the Grand Bazaar, Turkey's largest covered market, featuring an astounding selection of 4,000 shops offering everything from aromatic spices to luxurious textiles. After a day rich in cultural and historical experiences, we will return to Istanbul for a serene overnight retreat.

(Breakfast and Indian Dinner)

Day 3: Journey from Istanbul to Cappadocia

Following a delightful breakfast, you will check out and be warmly escorted from your hotel in Istanbul. A private car and driver will ensure your comfortable transfer to the airport. Your adventure continues with a direct flight to Cappadocia, lasting approximately one hour.

Upon your arrival, a dedicated driver will be waiting to transport you seamlessly to your accommodation in this enchanting region. The rest of the day is yours to savor at leisure, whether you wish to explore the captivating surroundings or simply unwind.

For those with a thirst for excitement, consider indulging in an optional ATV Ride Safari, which promises to elevate your Cappadocian experience. As evening approaches, you will be treated to dinner at a charming local restaurant or your hotel. Conclude your day with a peaceful overnight stay in Cappadocia, eagerly anticipating the adventures that lie ahead.

(Breakfast and Indian Dinner)

Day 4: Comprehensive Cappadocia Exploration with Underground City

Today, you may choose to begin your morning with an exhilarating hot air balloon ride, offering an unparalleled perspective to admire the stunning landscapes of the valleys and the surrounding area.

After indulging in a sumptuous breakfast, our adventure begins at Pigeon Valley, also known as Imagination Valley, famous for its enchanting fairy chimneys and breathtaking scenery that appears to be plucked from a storybook. Next, we will explore one of the intriguing underground cities, immersing ourselves in the enigmatic depths of Cappadocia's hidden world.

For lunch, we will journey to Avanos, a town renowned for its rich pottery heritage, where you will not only observe the craftsmanship but also have the chance to create your own pottery masterpiece. Continuing our exploration, we will stroll along the banks of the Red River (Kızılırmak) before arriving at the Open Air Museum, a cultural treasure that features exquisite wall paintings from the 10th century, depicting the life of Jesus Christ and early monastic figures.

Our day culminates at Uchisar Castle, a natural marvel that houses one of the largest clusters of fairy chimneys in the region, where you will be captivated by the sweeping views. As the sun sets, we will retreat to our accommodations, surrounded by the enchanting beauty of Cappadocia for an overnight stay.

(Breakfast and Indian Dinner)

Day 5: Journey from Cappadocia to Pamukkale with a Stop in Konya

After a delightful breakfast, we embark on our journey to Pamukkale. Our first enchanting stop will be in Konya, a city celebrated as the home of the Whirling Dervishes, a mystical sect founded by the revered Sufi philosopher, Mevlana, in the 13th century.

In Konya, we will visit the magnificent Selimiye Mosque, a masterpiece of architectural beauty, and the Mevlana Museum, where the rich heritage of Mevlana and the Whirling Dervishes is meticulously preserved. Following this culturally enriching experience, we will continue our journey to Pamukkale, where you will be warmly welcomed at your hotel for a restful overnight stay amidst the breathtaking natural beauty of the area.

(Breakfast and Indian Dinner)

Day 6: Pamukkale Excursion Featuring the Ancient City of Hierapolis

After savoring a sumptuous breakfast, we will embark on our journey to Hierapolis, the illustrious Greco-Roman city perched above natural hot springs. Upon our arrival, you will have the chance to delve into this extraordinary site, which boasts an extensive necropolis, the grand Great Baths, the historic Frontinus Street, the awe-inspiring Theatre, and the revered Martyrion of St. Philip.

Once we have thoroughly explored Hierapolis, prepare to be enchanted by the travertinesâ??breathtaking terraces sculpted by the mineral-rich waters that cascade down. You will have the opportunity to stroll barefoot along these remarkable natural formations, immersing yourself in their exquisite beauty.

As our day draws to a close, we will find tranquility in Pamukkale, where you can relax and rejuvenate amidst the serene allure of this enchanting locale. Enjoy a restful overnight stay in Pamukkale, reflecting on the dayâ??s remarkable experiences.

NOTE: The wonders of Hierapolis are best appreciated on foot, although buggies are available for rent at the entrance for those who prefer a different mode of transport for an additional fee.

(Breakfast and Indian Dinner)

Day 7: Journey from Pamukkale to Istanbul for Departure

After enjoying a delightful breakfast, you will be escorted to the airport for your flight to Istanbul. Once you arrive in this vibrant city, your tour will come to a close. We will then facilitate your transfer to the international airport, ensuring you reach in time for your international flight, scheduled for after 4 pm local time.
