During the journey from Mumbai to Nashik, you will have the opportunity to visit the Trimbakeshwar Temple, Anjaneri, and the Panchvati area. Nashik is not only an industrial town but also a renowned pilgrim destination due to its proximity to Trimbakeshwar, one of the 12 Jyotirlinga temples of Lord Shiva, which is just a half-hour drive away. Nashik is also known for its temples and caves that hold significance from the Ramayana era. After reaching Nashik, you will proceed to have darshan at the Trimbakeshwar Temple. On the way back, you will make a short diversion to visit Anjaneri, believed to be the birthplace of Lord Hanuman.
