Nepal Tour Package

Kathmandu, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, boasts 7 monuments and historic sites that have received recognition from UNESCO. These sites include the Durbar squares of Kathmandu, Patan, and Bhaktapur, as well as the religious temples of Swayambhu, Bouddha, Pashupati, and Changu Narayan. Pashupatinath Temple, a renowned Hindu temple, attracts millions of visitors annually. Situated on the banks of the sacred Bagmati River, this temple offers a glimpse into open public crematoriums where traditional rites and rituals take place. Here, you can also witness holy men with painted faces, dreadlocked hair, and ash-applied bodies, who are often willing to pose for pictures. Swayambhunath Temple, a 2600-year-old Buddhist Stupa, overlooks the entire Kathmandu valley and is commonly known as the Monkey Temple due to the presence of numerous monkeys. The main Stupa, ancient sculptures, temple of the child protector goddess, and monasteries are the main attractions here. Boudhanath, constructed in the 4th century, is considered one of the largest Stupas in the world. The surrounding area is reminiscent of a Tibetan village, with Tibetan monasteries dotting the landscape. Additionally, there are several painting schools where Lamas create Thangka paintings, which make for excellent souvenirs from Nepal. Patan Durbar Square, located approximately 5 km from the capital city in the district of Lalitpur, showcases a fusion of Buddhism and Hinduism. The town of Patan beautifully exhibits genuine art, architecture, culture, religion, and heritage. The houses in Patan display classic architectural designs, while intricate handwork on doors and windows adds to the aesthetic beauty of the area. Kathmandu Durbar Square, situated in the heart of old Kathmandu city, is a historic site surrounded by palaces, courtyards, and temples. Its historical significance and magnificent Newari arch make it a delightful place to visit.

Accommodation:

Stay for 5 nights at Airport Hotel

Day Wise Itinerary:

Day 1: Arrive At Kathmandu Nepal

Upon arrival at Kathmandu airport, you will be promptly transferred to your designated hotel.

Day 2: Half Day Local Sightseeing at Durbar Square

On the second day of your trip, you will explore the renowned Kathmandu Durbar Square. This square is one of the three royal palace squares located in the Kathmandu Valley. It holds great historical significance as it was once the residence of the Royal Nepalese family until the 19th century. Even today, important ceremonies like the coronation of the Nepalese monarch are conducted here.

During your visit, you will also have the opportunity to witness one of Nepal's most intriguing attractions, the Kumari Chowk. Inside this ornate cage resides the Raj Kumari, a young girl who is chosen through a mystical and ancient selection process to embody the Hindu mother goddess, Durga. She is worshipped during religious festivals and occasionally makes public appearances, for which a fee is paid to her guards.

After exploring these fascinating sites, you can indulge in some shopping or enjoy a delicious lunch. Finally, you will return to your hotel, concluding your half-day local sightseeing tour.

Day 3: Pashupatinath Temple and Boudhanath

On the third day of your trip, you will have the opportunity to explore the rich Hindu and Buddhist cultures in Nepal. We will begin our day with a visit to Pashupatinath, a renowned Hindu temple located on the banks of the Bagmati River, just 5 kilometers northeast of Kathmandu Valley. This sacred temple is dedicated to Lord Pashupatinath and is considered one of the holiest sites in Hinduism. It is also the seat of the national deity of Nepal.

Pashupatinath Temple is a significant religious complex that has been recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1979. It is a sprawling collection of temples, ashrams, and sacred images that have been built over the centuries along the banks of the sacred Bagmati river. Here, you will have the opportunity to witness the devotion of holy siddhus as they offer prayers and perform rituals.

After exploring Pashupatinath, we will proceed to Boudhanath, the most revered Buddhist shrine in Nepal. This magnificent site is home to a large stupa, which resembles a Mandala, an esoteric geometric figure. While the architecture is predominantly Nepali, there is a strong Tibetan influence in this area. Many Tibetan refugees have made their homes around Boudhanath, creating a vibrant community. You will also find numerous monasteries surrounding the stupa.

After a fulfilling day of cultural exploration, we will return to the hotel for an overnight stay.

Day 4: Leisurely Day

Today offers you the opportunity to independently discover Kathmandu. You may choose to immerse yourself in shopping, explore the captivating Durbar Square, or even enjoy some leisurely moments at the casinos. Rest assured, your overnight stay will be at the hotel.

Day 5: Sanga Day Tour

Following breakfast, we embark on a journey from Kathmandu to Changu Narayan, a scenic hilltop destination located approximately 18 km away. The car ride takes approximately one hour to reach our destination. Changu Narayan is renowned as the oldest temple in Nepal, with its origins dating back to the Manadeva period. Notably, the temple is famous for its beheaded Vishnu statue and is believed to be constructed from a single stone.

After exploring Changu Narayan, we continue our adventure with a half-hour drive to Sanga Mahadev. This remarkable site is home to the tallest Shiva Statue, standing at an impressive height of 144 ft. The statue's lifelike appearance adds to its allure and captivates visitors. Once we have experienced the wonders of Sanga Mahadev, we make our way back to our hotel in Kathmandu, where you will enjoy an overnight stay.

Day 6: Departure From Kathmandu

On the sixth day, you will have a leisurely morning before your departure from Kathmandu. As your flight time approaches, you will be escorted to the airport to catch your onward journey. With joyful memories, your trip comes to a close.
