Munnar, nestled within the majestic Western Ghats of Kerala, India, is a charming town that once served as a retreat for the elite of the British Raj. This enchanting hill station is enveloped by undulating hills adorned with tea plantations that date back to the late 19th century. The nearby Eravikulam National Park is a sanctuary for the endangered Nilgiri tahr and boasts the stunning Lakkam Waterfalls, scenic hiking trails, and the towering Anamudi Peak, which rises to an impressive 2,695 meters.

Alappuzha, also known as Alleppey, graces the shores of the Laccadive Sea in southern Kerala. Renowned for its picturesque houseboat cruises through the serene backwaters, this city features a labyrinth of peaceful canals and lagoons. Alappuzha Beach is home to the historic Alappuzha Lighthouse, built in the 19th century. The city's Mullakkal Temple showcases exquisite traditional architecture, while the annual snake boat races on Punnamada Lake are a celebrated highlight of the region.

Day Wise Itinerary:

Day 1: Arrival in Cochin and Journey to Munnar

Upon your arrival at Cochin Airport or Railway Station, you will be warmly greeted by our representative who will escort you to Munnar, often referred to as the “Paradise for Nature Enthusiasts,” situated at an elevation of 1800 meters above sea level. En route to Munnar, take in the breathtaking sights of Cheyappara and Valara Waterfalls. As you traverse this lush landscape, immerse yourself in the expansive tea gardens that blanket the hillsides. The scenery is nothing short of spectacular, with clouds gracefully enveloping the mountains, creating a captivating vista. After your journey, check into your hotel or resort for a restful overnight stay in Munnar.

Day 2: Munnar Exploration

Following a delightful breakfast, embark on a captivating sightseeing journey through Munnar. Your first stop will be the picturesque Mattupetty Dam, followed by the enchanting Kundala Dam and the serene Eco Point, a perfect haven for those seeking to bask in the beauty of nature while enjoying a playful echo of their voice. Next, immerse yourself in the rich heritage of tea at the Tea Museum. Conclude your day with a restful overnight stay in Munnar.

Day 3: Munnar to Alappuzha

After indulging in a sumptuous breakfast, bid farewell to your hotel and set forth on a captivating journey to Alappuzha, a destination celebrated for its stunning natural landscapes and often dubbed the "Venice of the East." This alluring locale is famous for its tranquil backwaters, thrilling boat races, opulent houseboat experiences, pristine beaches, and exquisite marine and coir crafts. Upon your arrival, settle into your chosen hotel or houseboat. Embrace the serenity of Alleppey's backwaters, where a Shikara boat cruise is highly recommended for those staying in the vicinity, offering an unparalleled opportunity to soak in the breathtaking vistas. Revel in an overnight stay amidst the enchanting beauty of Alleppey.

(Please Note: Houseboat accommodations are available at an additional cost.)

Day 4: Departure from Cochin

Following a delightful breakfast, make your way to Cochin airport or the railway station for your departure. Return home, cherishing the exquisite memories of your remarkable journey through Kerala.
