Day Wise Itinerary:

Day 1: Bangalore Arrival & Half Day Bangalore City Tour

Upon your arrival at Bangalore Airport/Railway Station, our representatives will warmly welcome you and assist you with your transfer to the hotel. After completing the check-in process, you will have some time to relax and prepare for an exciting tour of the Silicon Valley of India. Today, we will explore the enchanting city of Bangalore, also known as "The Garden City".

Our first stop will be the magnificent Bangalore Palace, a grand 19th-century structure nestled amidst lush gardens in the heart of the city. This iconic landmark is a favorite among locals and tourists alike, showcasing intricate carvings and architectural marvels from a bygone era. Immerse yourself in the rich history and culture of the royal families who once ruled from this palace as you explore its medieval castles and discover the ancient traditions they upheld.

The Sri Radha Krishna Temple, located just a short 15-minute ride from the palace, stands as one of the largest ISKCON temples worldwide. This magnificent structure spares no expense when it comes to utilizing the finest materials, including imported granites, marbles, and glass from Korea.

Continuing our exploration within the heart of Bangalore, we will now venture to the Karnataka Chitrakala Parishath. This stunning establishment, built in 1960, serves as a museum dedicated to preserving the rich culture and art of Bangalore. Within its walls, you will find a plethora of museums, galleries, and archives showcasing both modern and contemporary artwork, alongside traditional pieces. Notably, some of these artworks are crafted by talented students from The College of Fine Arts and The Bengaluru School of Visual Arts. The museum's highlight lies in its captivating display of Indian Gold Leaf work and Mysore paintings.

The Lal Bagh Botanical Garden is a stunning garden that showcases a variety of red roses blooming throughout the year. It was previously known as the Rose and Cypress Garden and is aptly referred to as "The City of Garden". This botanical garden holds great pride as one of South Asia's most diverse and historically significant gardens, having been established in 1760.

Moving on to another remarkable structure in Bangalore, we have the Vidhana Soudha, which was constructed in 1956. Standing tall at 46 meters, visitors are welcome to admire the exterior of this Dravidian-style building. The construction of this white-granite edifice involved approximately 5000 individuals and it is conveniently situated just across from the High Court of Karnataka.

After the sun sets, you will have the opportunity to enjoy your evening at your leisure. You can choose to explore the local department store or take a delightful stroll through the captivating city. Perhaps you could also consider visiting a couple of pubs and immersing yourself in the vibrant nightlife that Bangalore has to offer. Finally, you can retreat to the comfort of your hotel in Bangalore after a memorable night out.

Day 2: Transfer from Bangalore to Coorg

On the second day of your trip, we will be departing from Bangalore and heading towards Coorg. Before we check-out, make sure to enjoy a delicious breakfast. Coorg, also known as the “Scotland of India,” is a picturesque hill station with breathtaking natural beauty and coffee plantations. Upon arrival, you will be able to check-in at the hotel and leave your luggage. Take advantage of the evening to explore the area at your leisure before settling in for an overnight stay.

Day 3: Kushalnagara Full Day Sightseeing

On Day 3 of your trip, we have an exciting full day of sightseeing planned in Kushalnagara. Start your day with an early breakfast as we will be heading out early. Elephant enthusiasts will be thrilled with our visit to the Dubare Elephant Camp, where you can interact with these majestic creatures. We will arrive at 8.30AM, giving you plenty of time to enjoy this unique experience. The elephants at this camp are trained to participate in the famous Mysore Dasara festival. Visitors can have a great time interacting with them while also learning about their beauty and intelligence.

Afterwards, we will proceed to the Cauvery Nisargadhama, located approximately 29km from Madikeri and 7km from Bylakuppe. This island was formed by the River Cauvery and boasts fertile soil, abundant sandalwood trees, and bamboo groves. Visitors come here to indulge in outdoor activities and reconnect with nature. The island offers various attractions such as a hanging rope bridge, deer park, rabbit park, peacock park, and orchidarium. You can also opt for a boat ride across the river or enjoy an elephant ride at an additional cost.

After continuing our journey, we make our first stop at Bylakuppe, which is the second largest Tibetan settlement in the world outside of Tibet. Located approximately 80km from Mysore, this settlement began to form in 1960 and has since grown to become one of the largest Tibetan settlements. Despite its size, Bylakuppe remains a quaint town with essential amenities such as a post office, schools, and lodges. One of the main attractions here is the Golden Temple, also known as the Namdroling Monastery, which was established in 1963. Inside the temple, you will be captivated by the stunning Tibetan architecture and artwork. The temple’s red doors adorned with golden knockers, as well as the intricate decorations on the tower and outer walls, are truly remarkable. Moreover, the Golden Temple houses impressive 40-foot high golden statues of Guru Padmasambhava, Buddha Sakyamuni, and Amityaus. Additionally, there is a remarkable collection of paintings that depict Tibetan Buddhist mythology. Once we have explored this enchanting place, we will drive back to your hotel in Coorg for an overnight stay.

Day 4: Full Day Sightseeing Tour of Madikeri with Tala Kaveri

Begin your day with a delicious breakfast before heading to Tala Kaveri, the source of the majestic river Cauvery. Located on the eastern slopes of Brahmagiri peak at an altitude of 1350 meters, the trek in Brahmagiri hills offers a mesmerizing view of the surrounding hill ranges, perfect for capturing stunning photographs. Although the steps leading up to the hills are steep, they are manageable for climbers.

Afterwards, visit Bhagamandala, a place where two rivers, the Cauvery and the Kanika, converge. It is believed that a third river, the Sujoythi, joins them from underground. Explore the temple dedicated to Bhagandeshwara (Lord Shiva) and seek the blessings of the deity.

Following a satisfying lunch, make your way to Abbey Falls, which is located 8 kilometers away from Madikeri town. Nestled amidst coffee plantations and spice estates, Abbey Falls is renowned as one of the most beautiful waterfalls in the Coorg region. The falls cascade down the rocky slopes from a height of 70 feet into a serene pool. A hanging bridge has been constructed across the gorge, providing visitors with a breathtaking view of the falls. Don't miss the Kali Mata temple on the other side of the bridge. The path leading to the waterfalls is surrounded by lush vegetation, offering a delightful experience for nature enthusiasts. (For those who haven't visited on the previous day)..

Madikeri Fort, a renowned historical landmark in Coorg, continues to exude its timeless allure. This architectural marvel showcases a captivating blend of design styles and construction techniques, serving as a testament to its grandeur. Within its walls, visitors can explore the Madikeri Fort Museum and the Kote Maha Ganapathi Temple. Moreover, the elevated structures of the fort offer awe-inspiring panoramic vistas of the town, truly a sight to behold.

Located in Madikeri, the Sri Omkareshwar Temple is an ancient place of worship dedicated to Lord Shiva. Notably, its construction showcases a unique fusion of Gothic and Islamic influences, adding to its distinct charm.

Another must-visit attraction is the Raja's Seat, aptly named the 'Seat of Kings'. This brick and mortar structure, adorned with four pillars, is nestled within a splendid garden adorned with seasonal flowers and enchanting musical fountains. To witness the breathtaking views of sunrise and sunset, it is recommended to visit during the early morning or evening hours. Additionally, children can delight in the Toy Train attraction, offering a spectacular mountain view.

Afterwards, you can proceed to your hotel and unwind. Enjoy an overnight stay in Coorg.

Day 5: Transfer from Coorg to Mysore & Half Day Mysore Sightseeing

After enjoying your breakfast, it is time to check out from the hotel and proceed towards Mysore, which is also known as 'The City of Palaces'. The journey from Coorg to Mysore will take approximately 3 hours, covering a distance of 110 kilometers.

Upon arrival in Mysore, check in to your hotel and take some time to relax. Once you are refreshed, get ready for an exciting half day Mysore sightseeing tour.

Begin your exploration by visiting the renowned Mysore Zoo. Initially started by Chamaraja Wodeyar X as a private zoo, it now houses around 1500 animals, ranging from opossums to orangutans. This zoo is home to a diverse range of animals and holds the distinction of being the first in the country to house gorillas and penguins.

Next, proceed to the famous Mysore Palace, also known as the Maharaja's Palace. This historical palace, which served as the royal residence of the Wadiyars, is a magnificent architectural marvel. It showcases various artifacts from the historic times and is surrounded by meticulously designed gardens. The palace itself is a stunning three-storied stone building made of fine gray granite, adorned with rich pink marble domes. Overlooking this grand structure is a five-storied 145-foot tower, its domes gilded in gold.

In the evening, visit the Krishna Raja Sagara Dam, located near the confluence of three rivers – Cauvery, Hemavathi, and Lakshmana Thirtha. Be captivated by the vibrant and enchanting Brindavan Gardens, known for their symmetrical design and illuminated terrace gardens.

Don't miss the opportunity to indulge in some shopping while in Mysore, as it is an ideal destination for purchasing Sandalwood products and Silk sarees. After a fulfilling day of sightseeing and exploration, return to your hotel for an overnight stay.

Day 6: Half-day Tour of Mysore Temples and Shopping

Start your day with a delightful breakfast as we embark on a half-day tour of Mysore, the capital of Karnataka renowned for its vibrant culture and ancient architecture. Whether you're a history enthusiast or simply curious, this city will captivate your mind with its tales of the past, as ancient structures stand as silent witnesses to bygone eras. Additionally, you'll be treated to breathtaking views and sacred shrines that emanate a sense of reverence.

Our first destination is Chamundi Hills, known for its impressive height and home to the revered Chamundeshwari Temple. Situated at an elevation of approximately 3,500ft, this location offers an unparalleled panoramic view of Mysore city, accompanied by a refreshing breeze. Located about 13kms away from the city, the Chamundeshwari Temple is a renowned Shakti Peetha, known as the Krouncha Pitha, where it is believed that Sati's hair fell. Here, you can worship the fierce form of Shakti in the manifestation of Chamundeshwari. Originally constructed in the 12th century, the temple's tower was added in the 17th century, further enhancing its grandeur.

While exploring the hills, it is essential not to overlook the renowned Big Bull, a colossal representation of the Nandi, the vahana bull of Krishna. This remarkable statue holds great historical significance as it is a 350-year-old Nandi sculpture and stands as one of the oldest and most iconic landmarks in Mysore. The Nandi of Mysore stands at a height of approximately 16ft and measures 24ft in length. It was commissioned by Dodda Devaraja Wodeyar in the mid-1600s.

Continuing our journey, the St. Philomena's Church showcases captivating Gothic architecture. This Catholic church's construction is reminiscent of the famous St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York. Erected in 1936, it now stands as one of the tallest churches in Asia, towering at a height of 175ft and boasting exquisite Neo-gothic architectural elements.

After visiting the church, take the opportunity to explore the local market and shopping districts during the evening. Immerse yourself in the diverse offerings of Mysore, including silk saris, sandalwood artifacts and handicrafts, incense sticks, coffee, wooden toys, and Ganjifa paintings, which are traditional Mysore artworks. Following the tour, we will return to the hotel for an overnight stay in Mysore.

Day 7: Journey from Mysore to Hassan via Halebid and Belur

After enjoying breakfast at the hotel, we will proceed to check-out and depart from Mysore. Our next destination is Hassan, and along the way, we will make a stop at Halebidu. This historical site is home to the renowned Halebidu Temple, which was constructed during the Hoysala dynasty and is known for its intricate architecture. Take some time to explore the museum, which showcases a collection of statues and sculptures discovered from local archaeological sites.

Located nearby is the charming town of Belur, famous for the Chennakeshava Temple dedicated to Lord Vishnu. This temple is a remarkable example of Hoysala architecture, dating back to the 12th century. Marvel at the intricate craftsmanship and artistic details as you visit this sacred place.

Continuing our journey, we will reach Hassan and proceed to check-in at the hotel. Enjoy a comfortable overnight stay in Hassan, preparing for the adventures that await us.

Day 8: Departure from Hassan to Kaidala to Bangalore

On the final day, after having breakfast in the morning, we will check out from the hotel in Hassan and make our way back to Bangalore. Along the way, we will make a stop at Kaidala to visit its ancient temples. Once we have explored the area, we will continue our journey to Bangalore. Upon arrival, you will be directly transferred to Bangalore airport or railway station to catch your flight or train to your next destination. Kaidala is renowned for its two exquisite temples, which were intricately carved by the talented sculptor Jakanachari. These temples include the Chennakeshava Temple, constructed in 1150, and the Gangadreshwara Shrine. Jakanachari, who was born and raised in Kaidala, was a legendary sculptor responsible for creating the famous Somnathpura, Belur, and Halebedu temples. You will be dropped off at the airport or railway station for your onward journey.
