houses and bakeries. Upon arrival, settle into your hotel and take some time to unwind. Enjoy a comfortable overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 8: Full-day exploration of Pondicherry City

Commence your day with a comprehensive sightseeing tour of Pondicherry.

Next, proceed to the Jawahar Toy Museum, where you will find an exquisite assortment of intricately adorned dolls and toys representing various regions and cultures of India. These dolls and toys have been gathered from different states across the country and are adorned in the traditional attire of their respective regions.

Conclude your day by visiting the Aurobindo Ashram, established by Sri Aurobindo and Mirra Alfassa. This spiritual center also serves as the final resting place (Samadhi) of Sri Aurobindo and The Mother. Within the ashram premises, you will discover a library, printing press, playground, art gallery, dispensary/nursing home, dairy, farms, and guest houses.

The Old Lighthouse is renowned for offering a magnificent aerial view of the tranquil city of Pondicherry. Situated within the city limits of Puducherry, it stands adjacent to the famous Gandhi statue. Its purposeful construction was intended to guide mariners during nighttime landings.

With its timeless grandeur, the Arulmigu Manakula Vinayagar Temple was built three centuries ago. The temple's name derives from the Tamil words 'Manal' meaning sand and 'Kulam' meaning pond near the sea, as it was originally surrounded by sand. Consequently, the deity came to be known as Manal Kulathu Vinayagar, signifying 'God near the pond of sand'.

Known by various names such as Rock Beach, Gandhi Beach, and Promenade Beach, this shoreline is a popular attraction. Its moniker, Pondicherry Beach, is due to its close proximity to the city. The presence of rocks along the beach adds to its distinctive charm, while the statue of Mahatma Gandhi further enhances its significance.

After visiting the Botanical Gardens, you can continue your exploration by visiting the Auroville Matrimandir. The Matrimandir, also known as the Temple of The Mother, holds great spiritual importance for those practicing Integral yoga. It is located at the heart of Auroville, a community founded by The Mother of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram. The Matrimandir is often referred to as the soul of the city and is surrounded by a spacious area known as Peace. Once you have finished your visit, you can then proceed to your hotel in Pondicherry for an overnight stay.

Day 9: Travel from Pondicherry to Chennai with a visit to Mahabalipuram

After enjoying breakfast, check out from the hotel and proceed to Mahabalipuram for sightseeing.

One of the highlights of Mahabalipuram is the Shore Temple, located about 2 hours away. It gets its name from its location overlooking the Bay of Bengal. Built by the Pallavas in the 8th Century AD, this temple has a pyramidal structure that stands 60 ft tall and is constructed on a 50 ft square platform.

Another must-visit site in Mahabalipuram is Arjuna's Penance, which is just half a kilometer away. Also known as the Descent of the Ganges, this magnificent monolith dates back to the 7th century and measures 96 ft in length and 43 ft in height. There are several interesting interpretations associated with this historic site.
