About This Tour Package(Summary):

Dirang, gracefully elevated at 5,700 feet, is a charming town that gracefully hugs the banks of a serene river, celebrated for its invigorating hot water springs that promise relaxation and rejuvenation. As you embark on your journey towards Tawang, do not miss the opportunity to visit the captivating Jung Waterfall, a true gem of nature. Tawang, rising majestically at 10,500 feet, is the proud home of the Mongpa tribes, whose lineage is deeply rooted in Tibetan heritage. The Monpas, distinguished by their sturdy builds and fair skin, construct their dwellings from the abundant stone and timber found in their surroundings. Their livelihoods are primarily anchored in agriculture and animal husbandry, reflecting a harmonious relationship with the land.

The ascent to Sela Pass, which towers at an impressive 13,700 feet, guarantees an exhilarating experience that will leave you breathless. Just 40 kilometers from Tawang lies the enchanting Madhuri Lake, named in honor of the beloved actress Madhuri Dixit, who graced this picturesque location with her presence during filming. By late afternoon, you will find yourself in Bomdila, perched at 8,500 feet, where your adventure truly begins. Your journey commences in Bhalukpong, a serene town on the Arunachal border, where you can replenish your energy and gather essential supplies, setting the stage for an unforgettable expedition through the majestic mountains. Continue onward to Bomdila, where new wonders await.
